

Want to join the team?

We have four fantastic and exciting opportunities available at our award-winning Specialist dental practice in St Albans. For more details in regard's to these positions see each ad below. To apply send a copy of your CV to info@chiswellgreendental.co.uk and we will be in touch.

Trainee dental nurse- If you are looking to start a new career then this is the job for you! With flexible working rotas and a paid for independent learning programme with on the job training you will have a recognised qualification in dental nursing while earning at the same time within 2 years.

Qualified Dental nurse- Our specialist private referral centre has an amazing opportunity for dental nurses looking to progress within their career and work within top end dentistry. You will need to hold a nursing qualification and experience is necessary. You will have the opportunity to work with 10 different specialist's salary is negotiable depending on experience.

Receptionist- Our specialist private referral centre has an amazing opportunity for a keen receptionist/admin assistant. Customer care is at our forefront and if you feel you have all the key qualities to offer our patients the most admiral experience we would like to hear from you.

Patient care advisor- Our specialist private referral centre has a position available for a patient care advisor. Our care advisors are responsible for the smooth operation management of our patient's treatment plans and experience here at the centre. This position will require relevant experience and a qualification in dental nursing. You will need to be forward thinking and have a fantastic approach with patients and work well in a multi disciplinary team.